Dear Parents and Carers,

Join us for a World Book Day Costume-Making Workshop!

Thank you to those who responded to our initial interest form and for the enthusiastic and valuable feedback you shared. We are excited to invite you and your child(ren) to our Costume-Making Workshop in celebration of World Book Day! This is a wonderful opportunity to get creative together, repurpose everyday materials and bring your child's favourite book characters to life - all while being eco-friendly and cost-effective. Not keen on dressing up? Props are an option, too!

Workshop Details:

- Friday 28th February, 3:00-4:30 pm                      OR
- Monday 3rd March, 3:00-4:30 pm
- The workshop is offered on a "Give as You Wish" basis, with a suggested donation of £5.00 to help cover the cost of craft materials

What to Expect:

- Get creative with repurposed materials
- Staff will be on hand to assist with ideas and assembly
- Craft resources, such as paint and hot glue guns, will be available
- The focus is on creating simple costumes inspired by characters from books your child has read

What to Bring (on the day):

If you are able to, please bring any materials you would like to repurpose into a costume, such as:

- A large cardboard box
- Old t-shirts or pillowcases
- Any other items that could be creatively reused!

We will also send out some inspiration and ideas before the event to help get you started.

How to Register:

- To join us, please complete the registration form by clicking the link below:
